

Freedom Teller Security Update

On January 8, 2007 1st Liberty Federal Credit Union will be enhancing the security features of FreedomTeller – our online home banking product. We take the security of your financial information seriously and are introducing these enhancements to better protect your account from fraudulent access. Please feel free to contact the credit union if you have any questions about these changes. Below are the following changes you will see with the login process of FreedomTeller. Thank you.

Current Login Process:

A screenshot of the Freedom Teller login page. At the top left is the 1st Liberty Federal Credit Union logo. Below the logo, the text 'welcome to Freedom Teller' is displayed. To the left of the login fields is a small photograph of a woman sitting at a desk with a laptop. The login fields include 'Please enter your account number:' followed by a text box containing '999999', and 'Please enter your access code:' followed by a text box containing five black dots. Below these fields are two buttons: 'Continue' and 'Reset'. At the bottom left of the page is a VeriSign Secured logo with a checkmark and the text 'VERIFY'.

One Time Setup For New Login:

1. Click on the "No username? Click here" link to setup a username.
