

~ ALL ABOUT YOUR CREDIT UNION ACCOUNT -- TERMS AND CONDITIONS

This agreement contains rules which govern your account(s) with us. Much of our relationship with our members is governed by our bylaws and by state and federal law. Please read it carefully. Use of your account after you receive this agreement and/or the signing of the signature card, means you understand and agree to these rules and have entered into a binding contract. If you have any questions, please call us at 406-761-8300 or 1-800-824-0585.

As used in this brochure, the word "we" means the Credit Union and "you" means the account holder. Words and phrases may also indicate singular or plural in reference to the account holder.

NATIONAL CREDIT UNION SHARE INSURANCE FUND: Member accounts in this Credit Union are federally insured to at least $250,000 and backed by the full faith and credit of the U.S. Government, National Credit Union Administration, a U.S. Government Agency.

MEMBERSHIP ELIGIBILITY: To be eligible for membership you must be an individual or entity qualifying within the Credit Union's field of membership. You must purchase and maintain a share of $25.00 in the primary savings account for membership. Members, under the age of 18, must purchase and maintain a share of $5.00, as required by Credit Union Bylaws. Federal law requires us to obtain sufficient information to verify your identity. You will be asked several questions and to provide one or more forms of identification to fulfill this requirement. You authorize us to check your account, credit, and employment history and obtain reports from third parties, including credit reporting agencies, to verify your eligibility for the accounts and services you request and to use the reports to discuss opportunities with you on other products & services.

DIVIDENDS AND FEES: We pay dividends and assess fees against your account as set forth in the Truth-in-Savings Disclosure and Fee Schedule. We may change the Truth-in-Savings Disclosure and Fee Schedule at any time and will notify you as required by law.

RIGHT OF SETOFF: The Credit Union may charge or set-off any and all liabilities (individual or joint) the account owner(s) may have with the Credit Union, if at any time the Credit Union, in good faith, believes the prompt payment of the liabilities is in doubt. In the case of a joint account, each joint owner agrees that the Credit Union may use the account to satisfy any one of their individual obligations; similarly, each joint owner agrees that the Credit Union may use the funds in their individual accounts to satisfy obligations of the joint owner.

The Credit Union will also use its right of setoff to recover any funds it pays to honor an overdraft of your accounts. The funds and associated fees will be withdrawn from your account(s) as soon as sufficient funds become available in the account, regardless of the source of those funds, including direct deposit of payroll or government benefits checks. Please refer to the OVERDRAFTS section.

Any garnishment or levy against your account is subject to our right of setoff and security interest. If a garnishment or levy is placed on your account, the Credit Union may refuse to allow any withdrawals of the garnishment or levy amount until the dispute is resolved. In such a case, the Credit Union will not be liable to you, even if paying the money to the third party leaves insufficient funds to cover outstanding checks. Any expenses in responding to the court order will be chargeable to you. A fee will be assessed each time a garnishment is presented.

AMENDMENT AND WAIVER: The Credit Union reserves the right to amend the terms and conditions of any account 30 days in advance by written notice mailed to the statement address. Notice from us to any one of the joint owners is notice to all of you. The Credit Union also reserves the right to waive the enforcement of any of the terms and conditions of any account with respect to any transaction or series of transactions. Any such waiver will not affect the right of the Credit Union to enforce any of its rights with respect to other members, or to enforce any right with respect to later transactions with you.

DIRECT DEPOSITS: In the event the Federal Government requests return of any direct deposited funds, you authorize us to deduct the funds from any of your accounts without prior notice except as prohibited by law. Other appropriate legal action may be pursued to recover any remaining balance due.

ACCOUNT OWNERSHIP: Single Party Account: Account owned by 1 party. Multiple Party Accounts with Right of Survivorship: Parties own account in proportion to net contributions unless there is clear and convincing evidence of a different intent. However, any one party may withdraw the entire amount on deposit in the account. Further, any one party may change the type of account.

RIGHTS AT DEATH: Single-Party Account: At death of party, ownership passes as part of party's estate. Single-Party Account with POD (Pay on Death) Designation: At death of party, ownership passes to POD beneficiaries and is not part of party's estate. Multiple-Party Account with Right of Survivorship: At death of party, ownership passes to surviving parties. Multiple-Party Account with Right of Survivorship and POD (Pay on Death) Designation: At death of last surviving party, ownership passes to POD beneficiaries and is not part of last surviving party's estate. Only the primary member may sign and change the POD.

ACCOUNTS FOR MINORS: The Credit Union may require any account established by a minor to be a joint account with an owner who has reached the age of majority under state law and who shall be jointly and severally liable to us for any returned item, overdraft, or unpaid charges or amounts on such account. We may pay funds directly to the minor without regard to his or her minority or pursuant to State Uniform Transfers to Minors Act. Unless a guardian or parent is an account owner, the guardian or parent shall not have any account access rights. We have no duty to inquire about the use or purpose of any transaction. We will not change the account status when the minor reaches the age of majority, unless authorized in writing by all account owners

DEPOSITS: All non-cash items received for deposit or collection are accepted subject to final credit determined by the applicable collection procedure and laws. Transactions initiated other than in person do not become our responsibility until posted. The Credit Union reserves the right to supply any missing endorsements. We reserve the right to refuse or to return any deposit. See the Funds Availability Policy for deposit cutoff times for each Branch Office.

WITHDRAWALS: Any person who signs as a joint owner on a Signature Card may withdraw or transfer all or any part of the account balance at any time.

If you voluntarily give out your account number to a third person by telephone, that act authorizes the recipient of the information to initiate debits to your account even though that particular transaction is not authorized. The Credit Union will not be liable for those withdrawals.

Federal Credit Union bylaws give the Credit Union authority to impose a written notice of seven days up to sixty days before intended withdrawal of funds.

TRANSFER LIMITATIONS: Six pre-authorized, automatic or telephone transfers (including transfers done through Freedom Phone, Freedom Teller, or Mobile Banking) are allowed monthly from savings. Any other transfers must be accompanied by a signature.

You are in the best position to detect any discrepancies (i.e. unauthorized payments, alterations, etc.). All discrepancies must be reported to the Credit Union within 40 days of the earliest statement cutoff date containing those items. If you do not notify us within the 40 day period, the statement will be considered correct and you will bear the loss of any discrepancies entirely yourself. EXCEPTION: Any discrepancy pertaining to an Electronic transaction must be reported to the Credit Union within 60 days of the earliest statement cutoff date containing those items otherwise they will be considered correct and you will bear the loss entirely yourself.

LIABILITY: Any financial service provided by 1st Liberty Federal Credit Union may be used for any transaction permitted by law. Visa Credit and Visa Check Cards may not be used for internet gambling. You agree that illegal use of any financial service will be deemed an action of default and/or breach of contract and such service and/or other related services may be terminated at 1st Liberty Federal Credit Union's discretion. You further agree, should illegal use occur, to waive the right to sue 1st Liberty Federal Credit Union for such illegal activity directly or indirectly related to it. You also agree to indemnify and hold 1st Liberty Federal Credit Union harmless from any suits or other legal action or liability, directly or indirectly, resulting from such illegal use.

The Credit Union will not be responsible for or subject to any liabilities to any account owner other than those imposed upon it by law for lack of good faith or failure to exercise ordinary care. This disclaimer shall include but shall not be limited to loss or damage suffered by or to a person resulting from the use of remote teller units, drive-in or other equipment.

The Credit Union will not be liable if items were forged or altered so cleverly that the fraud could not be detected by a reasonable institution (i.e. unauthorized use of a facsimile signature machine).

REGULATION J: Any wire transfer sent or received by you, the member, may be sent by Fedwire and Regulation J governs Fedwires.

AGREEMENT CONTROLS: Both you and we will be bound by this Agreement. If there is a conflict between this Agreement and something said by one of our employees, you agree that this Agreement controls.

TERMINATION OF ACCOUNT: We may close your account immediately without notice to you if there has been any misrepresentation or any other abuse of any of your accounts; or we reasonably deem it necessary to prevent a loss to us; or it becomes overdrawn within the first 90 days of opening. After that time period, your account may be closed for excessive insufficient funds activity by mailing you a notice. We are not liable for refusing to pay any item presented after the account is closed; however, if we pay an item after termination, you agree to reimburse us.

TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP: You may terminate your membership by giving us written notice or by withdrawing your minimum required membership share, if any, and closing all your accounts. The credit union reserves the right to withhold services for causing the credit union a loss. You may be denied services or access to Credit Union premises due to abusive behavior, after investigation from senior management or you may be expelled for any reason as allowed by applicable state and federal laws and NCUA Regulations.

NEGATIVE INFORMATION NOTICE: We may report information about your loan, share or deposit accounts to credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your accounts may be reflected in your credit report. The account closure may be turned over to Chexsystems, Inc., an account verification network which will keep your name on file for 5 years. In addition, if there are any monies due on your checking account at the time of closure, that will also be turned over to ChexSystems for collection.

ADDITIONAL RULES FOR CHECKING ACCOUNTS

The word "item" will mean a share draft, check and any other means of deposit or withdrawal. Only check blanks and other methods approved by the Credit Union may be used to withdraw funds from the checking account.

The following rules apply to our checking accounts:

FORMS: Each check is printed in duplicate with the white carbon copy being used for the members' records. The original copy will NOT be returned to the member. Photocopies may be obtained for specific requested items within the seven-year period following the date of payment. A fee will be imposed for each photocopy.

OVERDRAFTS: An insufficient available balance, which may be less than the actual balance as a result of a check holds and debit card preauthorization holds, which is not covered by overdraft protection plans is subject to a Nonsufficient Funds Fee for each item charged against the account, whether returned or paid. There is no limit on the total fees that can be charged on an account. After the account has been opened for 180 days, the Credit Union pays overdrafts on checks, ACH payments, automatic bill payments and reoccurring debit card transactions at our discretion provided your account meets the criteria established for the Courtesy Pay-Overdraft Protection. If you want the Credit Union to also authorize and pay overdrafts on ATM and everyday debit card transactions you must opt-in. We do not guarantee we will always authorize and pay any type of transaction and may discontinue covering overdrafts at any time without notice. The Credit Union is not required to send prior notice if your account does not have sufficient available funds to pay an overdraft.

You may opt-out of the Courtesy Pay-Overdraft Protection entirely at any time in writing. By opting out the Credit Union will return all Nonsufficient Funds items to the maker.

If the Credit Union pays an overdraft, we will use our right of setoff to recover both the fee and the amount of the overdraft. The funds will be withdrawn from your account(s) as soon as sufficient funds become available in the account, regardless of the source of those funds, including direct deposit of payroll or government benefits checks. Please refer to the RIGHT OF SETOFF section.

PAYMENT OF CHECKS: During check processing, information on a check other than the information appearing on the MICR line (i.e. bank number, account number and amount of the check) are not identified. Any statements such as "void if not paid in 30 days"; 2 signatures required"; "not valid in excess of $100"; etc. do not appear on the MICR line and because of truncation and automatic processing will not be honored in the payment of these items.

POSTDATED AND STALEDATED CHECKS OR DRAFTS: You agree not to issue any check or draft that is payable on a future date (postdated). If you do issue a check or draft that is postdated and we pay it before that date, you agree that we shall have no liability to you for such payment. You agree not to deposit checks, drafts, or other items before they are properly payable.

- We are not obligated to pay any check or draft drawn on your account that is presented more than six (6) months past its date.

STOP PAYMENTS: Any person authorized to draw on the account may order a stop payment of any item drawn on that account. If a stop payment is requested on a check, you agree to furnish the Credit Union with the exact amount, date, check number, payee and such other information as may be necessary to identify the check properly. Failure to comply with these requirements and the requests set forth will relieve the Credit Union of all responsibility for the payment of any check contrary to the stop payment request. The Credit Union shall be under no duty to comply with any stop payment request unless the request was given during regular business hours and in such a manner as to offer the Credit Union a reasonable opportunity to act before the check was paid. A stop payment is effective for 6 months after the time it is received, but lapses after 14 calendar days if the original order was oral and was not confirmed in writing within that period. A release of stop payment may be made only in writing by the account owner who requested the stop payment. A fee will be assessed for each stop payment ordered.

Except when a declaration of loss is enforceable in accordance with the Uniform Commercial Code, a stop-payment order may not be requested on a Credit Union check. In the event that you order a stop payment on a Credit Union check, you agree to indemnify, defend and hold us harmless from any and all claims, liabilities and damages that may result therefrom. A fee will be charged for a stop payment on a Credit Union check.

WRONGFUL DISHONOR: If we mistakenly dishonor an item, we will be liable only for damages proximately caused by the wrongful dishonor of the item.

TRANSFERS: Funds will be automatically transferred from your savings account to cover overdrafts, unless you requested otherwise, if funds are available and you are within the 6 allowed monthly per transfer limitation; otherwise, the checks may be returned for non-sufficient funds.

OUR LIABILITY: Except for negligence, the Credit Union is not liable for any action it takes regarding the payment or non-payment of a check.
